"CHINA WILL DEFEND TO LAST MAN"

JAPAN'S STRENGTH SUFFICIENT TO EXPEL CHINESE

Proclamation Issued By General Matsui

Shanghai, October 8: A proclamation showing that the Japanese consider their strength sufficient to expel the Chinese also making it clear that the Japanese aim was at the elimination of present regime in Nanking was issued by General Matsui, Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese Expeditionary Forces in Shanghai. The proclamation is taken to herald the imminence of a grand offensive into which every resource of Japan's armed forces might be thrown.

"The Japanese Army is now prepared to use every means in its power to subdue its opponent (a spokesman explained that this meant the running of military machines to the fullest capacity). The objectives of the Japanese Expeditionary Forces are not only to protect Japan's vested interests, lives and property of Japanese residents in the affected areas but also to scourge the Chinese Government and Army who have been pursuing anti-foreign and anti-Japanese policy in collaboration with Communist influences. Briefly, the mission of the Japanese Army is to establish the foundations for a firm lasting peace in east Asia."

General Matsui, in his proclamation, adds that the Japanese are sorry for the many innocent persons who were unfortunately living in hostility areas but emphasises that the Japanese Army has no enmity against the Chinese people in general. However, against those who bear arms against Japan, the Japanese Army will show no mercy. General Matsui expresses sympathy for foreign nationals who have suffered from the hostilities but assures that the utmost will be done to protect their lives and property. General Matsui concludes that the Japanese Army in collaboration with the Navy is determined to clear the skies of ominous clouds and is confident that the day is not far off when the light of peace will shine again.—

Chinese People Profoundly Moved By President Roosevelt's Speech

Crippling Of Potential Market Will Be Dead Loss To World

Shanghai, October 8: "President Roosevelt's support of the sanctity of human rights and treaties heartens and gratifies not only the suffering people of China, but all weak nations as well as the greater ones who realise that enduring peace can only be built up on foundation of strict international morality," said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, in an interview at Nanking to-day.

"This, together with the State Department's condemnation of Japanese activities in China, have profoundly moved the Chinese people," proceeded the Generalissimo. "Japan believes that she is above treaty, and codes of international laws, she demands, requires all nations to obey her dictates regarding Asia. I will refrain from criticising her motives or methods in laying waste our country which had been so well on the way to unification and rehabilitation during the last several years."

Marshal Chiang warned that if the calculated crippling of China cannot be prevented, this potential market would inevitably become a dead loss to the world and peace would never again prevail in the Pacific.

He emphasised that China will continue to defend herself "even to the last man and the last inch of her territory," and added that if the signatories to the treaties concerned allowed Japan to continue that ruthless war, it would be tantamount to helping Japan to destroy China.—

BLAME!

Tokyo, Oct. 8.
It is understood that the Foreign Office is shortly issuing a proclamation giving Japan's views on the Sino-Japanese conflict. A declaration from the Diet states that Japanese action in China is one of defensive and therefore did not break the provisions of the Nine-Power Treaty and Kellogg-Briand Pact. The declaration adds that the treaties are obsolete and not applicable under present conditions and declares that China was the original violator of the Treaties. The declaration states that obstructive foreign interests started the conflict.—

ITALY'S DELAY

Tripartite Conference Invitation
Paris, October 8.
The Italian Government's delay in replying to an invitation to the Tripartite Conference regarding Spain is given prominence in the French press. The "Echo de Paris" states that in the event of Italy not agreeing to the conference, England and France will be forced to adopt measures the nature of which may cause Italy to reflect.—

BANDAGES FOR WAR WOUNDED

Working Party Busy At St. Andrew's

The current issue of the "Andrian" (St. Andrew's Church magazine) states:—"A Working Party to make bandages for the war-wounded has been meeting every Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings in the hall for the last three weeks and it has already produced a very large number of bandages. About twenty ladies have been giving their services. At the moment there is a dearth of material because of lack of funds. Donations for this purpose may be sent to the Vicar who will send them to the Central Medical Relief Committee."

FIERCE BATTLE

IN NORTH SHANSI

Taiyuan, October 8.
Fierce fighting is going on in North Shansi in the vicinity of Taihsien, Yenmen Pass and Ningwu, which are said to be in the hands of the Chinese troops. Japanese offensive in these sectors is intended to relieve the pressure on Yuanping, where 2,000 Japanese forces are fighting an overwhelming Chinese army unit. Japanese reinforcements at Yuanping made repeated attacks to break through the Chinese line south of the town held by three battalions. There was considerable hand to hand fighting, resulting in heavy casualties to both sides. Chinese soldiers hold the view that they rather die than to yield any territory to the enemy.—

SYMPATHY!

Rome, Oct. 8.
La Gáydá writing in "Popolo d'Italia" expresses sympathy with Japan's campaign in China which he asserts is the work of purification. He attacks the League for condemning Japan with closed eyes to the necessity of other peoples.—

ROOSEVELT SPEECH CRITICISED

Shanghai, October 8.
A Tokyo dispatch stated to-day that the "Asahi" and "Nichi Nichi" Japanese metropolitan papers, editorially criticised the Chicago speech of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who called Japan to task for her aggressions in China and violations of treaty obligations.

These papers stated that Japan could not give up her continental policy and that the United States is not qualified to say anything unless she maintains her strict neutrality in the Sino-Japanese conflict.

The hitherto complacent attitude of the Japanese press towards America is now changed to one of bitterness and sarcasm.—

ALL NOT ROSY IN JAPAN

COST OF LIVING UP 20 PER CENT.

Export Trade Terribly Hit: Plight Of Traders

SPECIAL "DAILY PRESS" INTERVIEWS

That all is certainly not rosy in the garden in Japan was borne out by passengers who arrived in Hong Kong yesterday on the S.S. Islami from the land of the Rising Sun.

According to these passengers, although the sun rises in that fair land it has ceased to shine on the traders and business people generally.

An Indian merchant who has been in residence in Japan for three years, and is now returning for good to Mother India, told a "Daily Press" reporter that within the last two months the cost of living had gone up by about 20 per cent. all over Japan.

Another passenger said that so many ships had been, and are being, utilised in such increasing numbers for the purpose of transporting troops and war materials to China, that the export trade of the country has been terribly hit. And that fact was now definitely making itself felt on the general life of the people. Large business concerns were somehow carrying on, he said, but the small trader was feeling the pinch pretty badly.

INDIANS IN JAPAN
A third Indian passenger said that what had struck him most in the recent past was that the Japanese were not generally half so well disposed towards Indians as they were of yore. In days gone by Indians were cordially received in Japan and the Japanese were always kind to them. Nowadays, however, it seems that spirit has been displaced by an attitude of indifference, although certainly there was no open antagonism. This was probably due, thought our informant, to the abrogation of the Indo-Japanese trade agreement and even, perhaps, the attitude of the Indian Nationalists over the Japanese adventure in China.

"Japan probably expects India, as an Asiatic country, to support her in the Asiatic Monroe Doctrine which she professes to preach, quite overlooking the fact that China, thousands of whose sons and daughters she is so ruthlessly killing, is also an Asiatic nation. It is quite patent to all thinking Indians that Japan's policy has

MORE FALSE REPORTS

Japanese Allegations Strongly Denied

The reports appearing in the Japanese press in Tokyo recently that British planes arriving in this Colony were flown to Canton by Chinese pilots trained in Hong Kong has brought forth an emphatic denial as a result of inquiries made at the Far East Flying Training School yesterday.

Following a cable from Tokyo, dated October 6, containing the report, a "Daily Press" reporter approached Flight Lieut. P. H. Smith, formerly of the R.A.F. and now Chief Instructor of the Far East Flying Training School which is the only depot in the Colony where Chinese youths can be trained, to obtain his views about the story.

Fit-Lt. Smith emphatically denied such groundless accusation made by the Tokyo press. "No," he said, "there has not been a British plane flown to Canton for the last six months, the last one being a demonstration flight."

NEVER FLOWN TO CANTON

The Chief Instructor also said that there might have been planes transported to Canton by means of the railway, "but certainly not flown there, still more not by any of the Chinese pilots trained here."

Inquiries from the students of the Far East Flying Training School revealed that few of the already qualified pilots trained there had gone up to Nanking to join the Chinese Air Force at the outbreak of the hostilities. "But they did not fly up there, not to my knowledge anyway," said one of them.

CHINESE DEFENCES IN CHAPEI INTACT

Shanghai, Oct. 8: With a comparative lull on the Kiangwan front, the Japanese to-day continued to concentrate their attacks on the Chinese defences in the Chapei sector.

The Japanese rushed the Chinese lines at Paoshan Road and Eight Character Bridge several times to-day but were driven back. A Japanese party from North Szechuan Road, at 4 o'clock this morning, clashed with the Chinese forces along Luying Road where fierce fighting continued for three hours. Chinese reinforcements arriving from the Cantonese Middle School launched an offensive, killing over 90 and driving the remaining attackers back to the Settlement.—

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE HEARING

Medical Evidence
GUNNER'S TRIAL

Medical evidence was given by Dr. R. S. Begbie yesterday at the Central Magistracy before Mr. W. Schofield in the case in which Peter Macintosh, Gunner of the 7th Anti-Aircraft Battery, Royal Artillery, was charged with the manslaughter of Gunner David William Berswick, aged 21, at Lyemun Barracks on September 30. It was alleged that the accused struck the deceased a few blows which resulted in his death.

Dr. Begbie, medical officer in charge of the Victoria Mortuary, testified that he conducted a post-mortem. Witness stated that deceased had a mark on the upper portion of the lower lip. That could have been probably caused by a blow of a fist which knocked the lip against the teeth. The other external abrasion was found on the left inner side of the elbow, and might have been caused by a fall. On internal examination witness found the heart in a very healthy condition, as were all the other vital organs.

The deceased's Thymus gland weighed 30 grams. The gland of a normal person of deceased's age should be, in weight, 15 to 20 grams. Witness further said that a person in normal condition could not have such an enlarged gland and persons suffering from this are liable to die from heart failure due to shock. In his opinion death was caused by shock, following heart failure which might have been caused by a blow.

Cross-examined by Mr. Prior, for the defence, witness said that cases of this nature were not common and occurred once in every thousand. In this case witness said that although the deceased had had a boxing career, death might have been caused by one of the blows before, but the reason that he did not die while boxing was because he was prepared and alert, while on this occasion he was not.

DEFENDANT TESTIFIES

The defendant, in evidence, said that he agreed with the facts of the case. Replying to Mr. Whyatt, the defendant stated that he struck the deceased because he was angered by the language that he (deceased) used in the room.

Major G. M. Churcher, 7th A.A. Battery Commander, testified that he had known the defendant since his arrival last year. The defendant to his knowledge was normal, quiet, and a sportsman possessing the average soldier's temperaments. The deceased was rather a quiet fellow but possessed a quick temper and found it rather difficult to keep his tongue. Witness recalled an incident which occurred two weeks prior to Berswick's death, when the deceased was brought before witness for using abusive language in front of a non-commissioned officer. Deceased received seven days' "C.E."

At this stage the hearing was adjourned till to-day.

Mr. John Whyatt, Assistant Attorney General, appeared for the prosecution, assisted by Det.-Inspector C. R. Rossekwy, while Mr. J. T. Prior defended.

FALSE TRADE MARK

Appearing before Mr. E. Hims-worth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday Li Yue Kau and Li Kau, soap hawkers, were charged with possession of two wood blocks of the China Soap Co., using false trade marks, and selling soap bearing the false trade mark of the China Soap Co.

Mr. W. M. Brown represented the China Soap Co. while Detective Sergeant Franklin was for the police.

His Worship found defendants guilty of the second and third charges and imposed a fine of $500 or three months' hard labour on each.

CASE REMANDED

Li Fuk-yue, 36, unemployed and Mak Yin-sin, 32, married woman were remanded for three days when they were brought before Mr. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a charge of poisoning Tang Kam, alias Tang Yee-kam yesterday, at No. 163 Tung Choi Street, first floor.

Devastation in Canton as the result of air raids by Japanese bombers.

THE DOUBLE TENTH Chinese Community Celebrates

China's National Day or the Double Tenth Festival, marking the 26th anniversary of the Chinese Republic, will again be celebrated by the Chinese communities to-morrow, not only in the Colony, but in every part of China.

The day will be observed as a general holiday, and the Chinese national flags will be in evidence everywhere. All Chinese commercial firms will be closed for the day, and all schools and colleges will also be given a whole day's holiday on Monday, owing to the anniversary falling on Sunday, which will enable the pupils to go hiking or picnicing.

LOCAL CELEBRATIONS

At noon to-morrow a tea party reception will be given at the Chinese Club and at the Headquarters of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce for members and their friends, and it is believed that there will be a number of musical concerts and dancing parties at the different social centres and schools.

In view of the critical situation in China to-day, and the brutality of the Japanese aggressors in indiscriminately bombing the defenceless non-combatants of the Capital and other cities of the country, it is doubtful whether the Chinese will celebrate the Double Tenth Festival this year with the enthusiasm of previous years.

The Sino-Japanese war has cast a gloom over what would have been an enjoyable occasion, and it has been suggested that the money to be spent in celebrating the anniversary should be used for the relief of the wounded soldiers and war refugees in North China.

CHINA'S FUTURE

It has been publicly declared by China's leaders that the more the Japanese bomb Chinese universities, cultural institutions, and defenceless cities and towns, the firmer will be the Chinese determination to resist and fight the aggressors to the bitter end.

This year will certainly record the united National resolve of the meek and peace-loving Chinese people to repair the damage to China's cultural institutions, and hasten at all costs the reconstruction of her devastated cities and towns, so as to teach the Japanese a lesson in civilization.

The misery and sufferings of the millions of unfortunate victims of brutal Japanese bombing raids has already been denounced and condemned with horror by the whole of the civilized world.

This year's anniversary of the establishment of the Chinese Republic will herald the rapid rise of China to her rightful position as one of the leading peace-loving and civilizing nations of the world.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

Catholic Celebration Of Double Tenth

To-morrow, the "Double Tenth," being the Chinese National Independence Day, there will be the usual religious ceremony in the Catholic Cathedral at 4 p.m. This year, on account of the war, many of the customary celebrations will be omitted, but the religious ceremony will be maintained, as it is one not merely of rejoicing but of thanksgiving. The Te Deum, the Church's official hymn of thanksgiving will be sung in acknowledgment of God's blessings to the Republic of China, and after Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament the choir and congregation will sing the Chinese National Anthem.

THE BISHOP OF NANKING

The interest which the Chinese press takes in the movements of H. E. Mgr. Yu Pin, the Vicar Apostolic of Nanking, is an indication of the high estimate which is held of him by his fellow-countrymen. Mgr. Yu Pin, in fact, both on account of his brilliance as a scholar and of his skill in administration, is recognised both in China and abroad as one of the outstanding men of the younger generation in China—he is not yet forty years of age. His practical ability was shown by the rapidity with which he organised war relief work. At the first outbreak of hostilities he made arrangements for the assistance of the wounded both at the front and behind the lines by Catholic organisations. He established the first hospital for the wounded in Nanking, and within a very short time was responsible for a corps of two hundred Catholic priests, brothers and students doing ambulance work on the field. Before his visit to Hong Kong this week, on his way to Europe, he visited by air several important points in China, including Sian and Hankow, and was very glad to see an organised Catholic War Relief movement well established before he left. This Catholic organisation, which has its headquarters in Hankow, is working directly in conjunction with the Chinese Red Cross, and during his brief visit to Europe, Mgr. Yu Pin hopes to arouse a good deal of interest in this great work for the relief of suffering.

BENEFICENT

Before the blessing of the new Church of St. Francis in Kowloon

City last Monday, as the papers already mentioned. His Lordship the Bishop presented in the name of His Holiness the Pope the Benevolent medals and diplomas to Miss Anna Teresa and Miss Gullhermina Gomes, through whose generosity the church was built. This decoration is over a century old. It was instituted in 1832 by Pope Gregory XVI, and it is his image, which is of gold. On the reverse side there is the inscription Benevolent (For Merit) surrounded by a crown of oak leaves. The decoration is awarded for honourable service of the Church in any capacity. Considering the great number of Catholics—over three hundred million—the awarding of a Papal honour is a comparatively rare occurrence.

THE ROSARY AND LEPANTO

Every year during the month of October the procession at the Rosary Church, Kowloon, brings before the public in Hong Kong the feast of the Rosary, which is celebrated during this month. This feast commemorates the victory of Christian arms in the battle of Lepanto in 1571. At that time the Turks were threatening Western Europe and the Pope ordered prayers throughout Christendom, particularly recommending the recitation of the rosary. When the victory was gained the feast was established in memory of it.

The Straits of Lepanto in which the battle was fought are part of the Gulf of Corinth in Greece. Lepanto is the Italian name of the town of Naupactus (Greek, Epukto) which was once very important on account of its harbour, and changed hands numberless times in history. An earthquake destroyed the town when the Romans held it, and in recent years the harbour has become almost completely choked up. The romantic side of the battle, which was a very fierce one, has been well brought out in Chesterton's best known poem. It had many elements of romance, for it was the last battle to be fought by fleets of galleys and it included among the participants members of almost every well-known family in Europe. Among the wounded in the battle was Cervantes the author of Don Quixote.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST.

Subject: Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all churches of Christ Scientist, to-morrow October 10, will be: Are sin, disease, and death real?

The Golden Text will be: "The law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin, and death." (Romans 8:2).

Among others, the following citations from the Bible will be read: "And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father, but Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury the dead." (Matt. 8:19, 21, 22).

The Lesson Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science Text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Are we irrelevant towards sin, or impugning to much power to God, when we ascribe to Him almighty life and Love? Two essential points of Christian Science are, that neither Life nor man dies, and that God is not the author of sickness. As for sin and disease, Christian Science says, in the language of the Master, 'Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.' Let discord of every name and nature be heard no more, and let the harmonious and true sense of Life and being take possession of human consciousness." (Pages 348, 349, 355).

STAR IS BORN

All the thrills of a trip to Hollywood are provided local film fans at the King's Theatre in "A Star Is Born." David O. Selznick's glorious Technicolor production starring Janet Gaynor and Fredric March.

This first really modern story to come to the screen in colour is so vividly told, so convincingly played and so brilliantly directed by William A. Wellman that you leave the theatre feeling as if you'd actually paid a visit to film-land.

Janet Gaynor and Fredric March have written-to-order roles and have never turned in performances to match these.

TWO TO-DAY

Prince Edward, baby son of the Duke and Duchess of Kent, who is two years old to-day.

NEW FACES OF 1937

"New faces of 1937" opens to-morrow at the Queen's Theatre.

A series of yearly musical comedies from RKO Radio is inaugurated with "New Faces of 1937" to bring new talent from the entertainment marts of the world to screen audiences.

Heading the gala talent revue in the current production are such radio stars as Harriet Hilliard, Joe Penner, Milton Berle and Parkyakarkus, whose names are known to millions, but whose faces are comparatively new to screen fans.

This is Penner's third picture, although he has not been seen on the silver screen for more than two years. Miss Hilliard is making her second screen appearance, her first having been in the Astaire-Rogers picture "Follow the Fleet." Milton Berle is making his screen debut, and Parkyakarkus has been in only one other picture.

MOUNTAIN MUSIC

Take Bob Burns with amnesia, Martha Raye as a lovelorn lass who wants a husband and doesn't care where she finds him; Terry Walker as a mountain beauty, and John Howard as a hillbilly, and a background of the most toe-tickling mountain music you've ever heard—put 'em all together, and they spell "Mountain Music," the riotous new comedy which opens at the Alhambra Theatre to-day. "Mountain Music" is the tale of Bob Burns who runs into Martha in a strange city. Bob thinks he's wealthy, and so does Martha, and when they discover that he's really only a hillbilly who ran out on marriage to a girl he didn't love, it's a shock to both of 'em.

Janet Gaynor surpasses all her previous screen achievements in "A Star Is Born," now playing at the King's Theatre.

FILM NOTES

Miriam Hopkins And Cary Grant

Miriam Hopkins has so many stories she doesn't know what to do. Just to make herself feel better about it she dashed off to New York to buy a lot of new clothes when she heard she was really to start on "The Indestructible Susan" for Radio.

After that Radio propose starring her with Cary Grant in a crazy comedy called "Love on Parade." All about a play-boy placed in the custody of a parole officer's daughter.

It'll be a long "after," because Cary has to make "Wagons Westward" for Columbia first. And wants to fit in a holiday to Japan, before that.

Then there's always the fact that Miriam is really in Sam Goldwyn's employ, and may work for him again some time.

The consequence of it all is that Jesse Lasky, who has another story called "Curtain Call," which she'd like to do, is holding it up until Miriam gets her commitments sorted out.

DANGEROUS NUMBER

Cave-man tactics by a modern man whose only clubs are very exclusive, provided hilarious mirth yesterday for a capacity audience at the Majestic Theatre where the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Dangerous Number," opened a 2 day engagement.

Robert Young and Ann Sothern have the leading roles. Young is delightful as a young silk manufacturer in love with an actress and mad enough to let conventions go over the deep end. Ann Sothern, as the actress, is excellent.

With this cast and a screen play by Carey Wilson, Saturday Evening Post writer, from the magazine

A scene from Paramount's latest musical comedy, "Mountain Music," co-starring Bob Burns and Martha Raye, showing to-day at the Alhambra Theatre.

ON AGAIN—OFF AGAIN

A unique comedy situation which brings together such contrastive characters as a successful but goofy pill manufacturer, his equally mad and cordially hated partner who is temporarily working as his valet, the latter's pretty sweetheart, a gangster and his gold-digging wife, and a group of thugs, is the basis for much of the insane action in "On Again—Off Again," starring Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, which has its run at the Queen's Theatre to-day.

The occasion which unites the unusual group under one roof is a house party thrown by Woolsey who, jealous of his wife and his partner who is working as his valet because of losing a wrestling match, plans to humiliate his arch enemy in front of his sweetheart.

Directed by Edward Cline, "On Again—Off Again" has a supporting cast which includes Marjorie Lord, Patricia Wilder, Russell Hicks, Esther Muir, Paul Harvey, George Meeker, and a bevy of beauties in the musical and dance sequence.

Following the spectacular interruption of the wedding Young marries the actress himself and immediately dislikes her friends of the theatre. A series of quarrels keeps the audience in constant laughter, for all of them are so human and so understandable to the average mind that they touch home.

VISIT TO GERMANY

Duke And Duchess Of Windsor To Tour Country

Berlin, Oct. 8. Circles close to the Wilhelmstrasse state that the Duke and Duchess of Windsor will arrive here on Monday, purely on a private visit, originated from the personal initiative of the Duke who would like to become acquainted with the social institutions and national institutions of Germany, especially the workmen's dwellings, the Reich labour service, social measures in industry and trade and all other questions concerning the social position of the workman in Germany.

The Duke will receive all facilities in order to give him a genuine insight to the questions interesting him and to show him, as he desires, the social and economic structure of Germany.

Their stay in Berlin will last three days after which the Duke and Duchess will go on a ten to twelve-day tour of Germany.

It is regarded as probable that the Duke will be received by Herr Hitler and an open discussion will take place between the Fuehrer and his English guests about questions interesting the Duke.

THE COLONIAL ISSUE

Berlin, Oct. 7. For more than one week now the colonial issue has been discussed in the entire German press from every angle and at great length. This nation-wide campaign is being conducted with such insistence and with so much intensity, that political circles believe that a diplomatic action in this matter is imminent.

It is stated that the Fuehrer's pronouncement on the subject, embodied in the Harvest Thanksgiving Speech, together with Mussolini's oration in Berlin, in reference to the equality of rights, have clearly established that the Colonial Question will have to be taken up and that the settlement of this question will greatly influence the lessening of the tension in Europe.

CONSERVATIVE PARTY'S CONGRESS

London, Oct. 7. The 64th annual congress of the British Conservative Party was opened at Scarborough to-day. The Congress, which is attended by 2000 delegates and presided over by Mrs. Clara Fyfe, will last till Friday night, when it will be concluded by a speech by the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain. The session to-day began with the unanimous election of Lord Londonderry as Party Chairman for the coming year. This was followed by a unanimous resolution expressing confidence in the Chamberlain Government.

The resolution points out that a disunited opposition is seeking to find its salvation in attacks on Government, although the opposition fully realises that the majority of the British population are approving the Governments Home and Foreign policies.

The agenda of the congress reflects the solidarity of the Conservative party, and it is not expected that the debate on any points of the agenda will give rise to disputes.

Discussing the foreign political situation, Mr. Winston Churchill pointed out that Government must be fully supported by the Conservative Party, since the safeguarding of world peace and international law made such support imperative. Pointing to Britain's rearmament, Mr. Churchill pointed out that "Britain's hour of action is Europe's hour of action." While stressing the friendliness of Britain and the United States, Mr. Churchill stated that the friendship between the two great Anglo-Saxon nations would always strengthen the side of "powers operating for world peace."

Lord Plymouth, Under-Secretary of State in the Foreign Office, stressed that it had above all been Britain's policy to be moderate, aiming at the maintenance of peace. Referring to the Spanish question, Lord Plymouth said that the British Government had always supported the principle of strict non-intervention in order to prevent the struggle from spreading beyond the Spanish borders.

NINE POWER TALKS

Not Asked Yet But Will Attend

Washington, Oct. 7. Mr. Cordell Hull, in the daily Press conference, said that no invitation to the Nine Power Conference had, as yet, been received but as one of the signatories to the Treaty, he "presumed" the United States Government would accept the invitation when it was received.

Mr. Hull said that he had received no communication proposing that the conference be held in Washington and added that the United States Government had not consulted any of the other American Republics before issuing the condemnation of Japan, but acted independently in accordance with its established policy.

JAPANESE AMBASSADOR CALLS ON MR. HULL

Washington, Oct. 8. Mr. Saito, Japanese Ambassador to the United States, called on Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, to-day for the purpose of what was commonly described as "exchange of information."

Mr. Saito subsequently stated that he had not made any protest against the State Department's condemnation of Japan's action in China but visited Mr. Hull on his own initiative to "clear up certain" points of information.

He added that he did not regard the State Department's pronouncement likely to strain relations between America and Japan but contrary to the recent developments in the Far Eastern conflict. It has been calculated to bring about a better understanding between the two countries by clarifying the atmosphere.

JAPANESE COLUMN NEARLY WIPE OUT

Shanghai, Oct. 7. The Japanese column south of Lotienchen, which succeeded to cross the Shanghai-Tai-chong Highway and penetrated deep into the Chinese territory yesterday, was nearly wiped out following a fierce counter-attack by the Chinese.

Moving cautiously to the west, the Japanese found themselves surrounded, and despite the frantic attempts made to break through the Chinese cordon they were shot down one by one. The commander of the column was slain while only a handful of soldiers escaped to tell the story of their fatal drive.

Ten Japanese soldiers were taken prisoner while three machine-guns were seized.

NEWS OF DEAN SWANN AND HIS CHURCH

Brother's Appointment

The Rev. Alfred Swann, D.S.C., late Dean of St. John's Cathedral is now Rector and Rural Dean of Potterne Church, near Devizes. The Church recently figured in a "Times" leader. It is proposed that the early English glass which was once the pride of Salisbury Cathedral, and which is now being collected and reassembled by devoted enthusiasts, shall be put in Potterne Church.

The reassembled glass has proved too fragmentary for Salisbury Cathedral where the windows are large. Potterne is suggested because it was built at the same time as Salisbury, by the same architect, and has always been very closely connected with the Cathedral, writes Bishop Hall in the current issue of the "Andrian."

Friends of the late Dean and his wife will be interested to know that Mrs. Swann's brother, the Rev. F. Abraham, has been consecrated coadjutor Bishop of Newfoundland. He served for some years in Canada and has been recently Vicar of Romford in Essex.

The Dean's elder brother, the Rev. S. E. Swann, has recently been appointed Vicar of St. Mary Redcliffe, Bristol.

DEATH-RAY

INVENTOR

To Marry Polish Opera Singer

Mr. H. Grindell-Matthews, famous as the British inventor of the "death-ray," is shortly to marry Madame Ganna Walska, the Polish opera singer and the owner of the Champs Elysee Theatre in Paris.

Speaking over the telephone from his home at Tor Cloud, Craigoefn Taro, Swansea, Mr. Grindell-Matthews stated that he expected the marriage to take place quite soon.

"I have known Madame Walska for about three months," he said. "I first met her at the opera in London."

Mr. Grindell-Matthews has always been interested in electrical matters. He is an engineer by profession and he conducted his "death-ray" experiments on a mountain-top in South Wales.

He is also a British pioneer of sound pictures and the radio telephone.

Madame Walska's former husband was Mr. Harold McCormick, a Chicago millionaire. They were divorced in 1931.

REUNION OF CAMPAIGNERS IN S. AFRICA

Dinner Revives 50 Years' Memories

The picture yellows on the wall above the horseshair sofa; in the dentist's waiting room; in the parlour of the seaside boarding house.

Nearly everybody has seen it at least once, and never ceased wondering at the gallant young officer, seen fighting singlehanded with swarms of blacks. No "good" English family was without the picture 30 or 40 years ago.

The picture will be painted over again in the dining-room of a West End hotel in November—this time in words—by the 100 Englishmen who came back. Lord Baden-Powell will preside at this reunion dinner of the "old boys" of the 1890, 1893, and 1896-7 campaigns in South Africa; and yaris and toasts will inevitably turn on young Captain Alan Wilson and his 34 officers and men.

The young officer of the "parlour picture" was, of course, killed, as were all his men, when they were separated from the main force and surrounded by 3,000 Matabele near the Shangani River; but this is what M'Jaani, one of Lobengula's headmen, said of him afterwards:

"He was umtagati (bewitched). We shot him with six rifles, and he still fought. But we killed him at last, and the wounded men who could not fight just put their hands over their eyes while we ran assegais into them. I will never fight with whites again. They do not cry or groan; they are not afraid to die."

WHO THEY ARE

Mr. B. R. Garlick, of Bromley, Kent, will dine again with men he knew as youths in Africa 50 years ago. He was batman to Dr. Jameson, whom he accompanied in the Jameson Raid. Another survivor is Lieut.-Colonel the Hon. Sir Eustace Bennet, who afterwards became Governor of the Seychelle Islands.

Then there are Colonel Noel Llewellyn, who fought in 1893, and is now Chief Constable of Wiltshire; Brigadier-General R. M. Moore, former Hampshire cricketer; Captain W. M. Blake, who went on through the South African War and the Great War.

There will be a lusty cheer for Commander E. C. Tyndale-Blace, who led a small band of blue-jackets, Maxim-gunners from Cape Town and hoisted the Union Jack at Fort Salisbury.

Major T. J. May, the secretary, who arranges the annual dinner, will receive a presentation this time. Major May had been an engineer, gold miner, and diamond miner, when he heard the appeal of Major (later Lord) Plumer for volunteers to join him in quelling the Matabele rebellion.

sincerity—and they have reduced this to a fine art—that we cannot but quote it: "The present incident may be dragged on for a fairly long time, although the Government is naturally doing its utmost to settle it speedily and advantageously."

So what? To follow words with action the Japanese Government "to settle it speedily" send more troops, warships, and aircraft to China, but that is not all. They have extended their blockade of the coast of China and occupied islands off the coast of South China. What then is the meaning of this display of power and strength, of this violation of International Law? To our way of thinking Japan has bitten off more than she can chew. She has woken up to this fact with a suddenness that is staggering and after she had had some little time to think things over, she decided that the only course open to her was to try and carry out the bluff. Only a nation that is frightened will resort to these tactics—this "child's game of bluff" coupled with propaganda on the scale the Japan is forcing on the world. The latest rumour is that Japan may denounce the Nine-Power Treaty. Well, let them try to carry out the bluff—China is waiting to call it!

£100,000 SHIP SOLD FOR £162,500

Building Costs Increasing

EFFECT OF HIGHER FREIGHTS

The motor ship Skipsea, 4,974 tons, built at Sunderland last year for less than £100,000, has been bought by a tramp shipowner for £162,500, says the "Daily Telegraph."

Other figures of recent sales emphasise the important bearing on the shipping situation of the rising costs of building. They make it plain that the cost of building cargo vessels has advanced more than 50 per cent.

It is therefore hardly surprising that there is some tendency for the volume of orders for new ships to decline. To blame the shipbuilder for this situation, as is the tendency in some quarters, is to ignore the general increase in the cost of raw materials, to say nothing of the big rise in freights, which has completely transformed the outlook of British shipping in the past 12 months. Shipbuilder and shipowner are governed by circumstances beyond their control.

Only about 30 per cent. of the cost of a ship is represented by wages. Steel prices have increased nearly 75 per cent., and timber of certain qualities as much as 100 per cent., while copper, lead, castings, forgings and machinery of every kind have gone up in proportion.

It would, however, still be possible to quote figures a good deal below current prices but for the rise in freights, which enhances the cost of steel plates and other imports enormously.

How far that rise has gone may be gauged by reverting to the case of the Skipsea.

She has been acquired at a price at least 63 per cent. in excess of her first cost last year. In the evident belief, no doubt well founded, that her new owner will be able to trade with her at a satisfactory profit.

This rise in freights is estimated to have added as much as 25 per cent. to the cost of constructing a ship.

This, particularly applies to big and fast liners, referred to by Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, last week when he said that increased costs in Great Britain might conceivably delay the construction of two 22,000-ton vessels for the Canadian-Australia service.

SIR HUGH ALLEN

Sir Hugh Allen, who has announced his retirement from the directorship of the Royal College of Music at the end of the present term, introduced a host of innovations during his nineteen years of office. One of his most important innovations was that of making opera a far more important place in the school's curriculum. He also had the school's own theatre built, and in it the school's performances of opera have been given since 1921.

As a musician Sir Hugh is, of course, best known as an organist at Chichester, Ely, and New College, Oxford—but he was also for long the conductor of the London and Oxford Bach choirs. He only gave up the London Bach Choir when he became director of the R.C.M. His own experience as a conductor undoubtedly helped him in the introduction of another important novelty at the college—that of classes for conducting. He started these classes at the college some fifteen years ago. The first conducting teachers there were Sir Adrian Boult and Dr. Malcolm Sargent.

Sir Hugh will be succeeded by Dr. George Dyson, Director of Music at Winchester College. "Manchester Guardian."

A FISHERMAN'S CATCH

An Oban fisherman on bringing to the surface his three flounder-line nets, found following catch.

Twenty-two dogfish, ten king fish, 22 edible crabs, 18 skate, 2 one lobster, two monk or "angler" roker, 18 plaice, six sand dabs, star fish, one sea snail, one pollock, and three cormorants.

One of the cormorants had been partly devoured by the crabs. The cormorants had evidently dived in pursuit of fish, and got embroiled in the net.

This catch was got near Tobermory Bay.

MALAYAN REVIEW

Malayan Chinese

Mr. Kao Ling Pal, the Consul-General for China in Singapore, recently made his first official tour of Malaya, visiting the various Chinese Consulates and getting in touch with the Chinese leaders in the principal towns of the country.

The visit is undertaken at a time when the patriotic feeling of the Malayan Chinese is very much at its height, and when Mr. Kao himself has been in the country for about a year, some four months of which were spent away from the country when he visited London with Dr. H. H. Kung, Admiral Chen and the official Chinese contingent to the Coronation celebrations. We have no doubt that Mr. Kao will learn much that will be of interest not only to himself but also to Chinese official circles in Nanking, with whom he will get in touch concerning the position of Chinese in Malaya, and to whom it is anticipated he will make a report on his tour, supplementing the periodical reports which we expect will have been submitted to China by the local Consuls themselves.

Mr. Kao was associated with Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek for some time before he came here and had distinguished service in the diplomatic corps.

Dual Nationality

Several problems confront the Malayan Chinese the most urgent and pressing of which is the question of what has been termed their "dual nationality." Allegiance to their mother country or to Malaya, the land of their adoption—which? For it will be futile to close our eyes to the fact that there is a feeling among Malayan Chinese that, though British subjects in the true sense of the word, they owe a very close allegiance to their mother country.

The manifestations which have been apparent these few weeks, since the Japanese aggression began, have served to show the patriotic feelings of the local Chinese in so far as their motherland is concerned. In accordance with the expressed intentions of the Government, however, they have done nothing to contravene any wish or request of the authorities. They have merely contributed large sums of money for the relief of their distressed compatriots in China, who have, through no fault of their own, found themselves in extremely sorry plight as a result of the outrageous acts which have been committed by Japan.

Throughout they have shown the most commendable restraint. A few cases have been reported in which Chinese business men have been warned in one way or another not to deal in Japanese goods, but generally there has been a most satisfying absence of anything to transgress the law, which in itself, under the stress of disturbing news from China, might have been understandable.

"FLYING WING" AIRCRAFT ABLE TO CRUISE AT OVER 350 M.P.H

A new type of "flying wing" aircraft has been invented and patented by Mr. F. F. Mote, an engineer, of Brighton, writes the "Evening Standard" air correspondent.

The design incorporates an inner wing floating in an outer casing, and it is claimed that in the event of a crash the outer shell would take the shock of impact, leaving the passengers and crew unscathed inside the inner wing.

The airplane will be 150ft. in span. The wing will be up to 60ft. wide. For most of its length it will be about 12 feet deep with rooms for crew, passengers, and engines, which can be tended during flight. Booms will run from the rear or trailing edge of the wing to the tail unit.

In level flight the additional wing is lowered into the main wing. For descent it is raised again to provide a flat gliding angle and slow landing.

Mr. Mote claims that his "flying wing," built to this specification and size, may be able to accommodate at least 60 passengers, or be armed with torpedoes and bombs, as well as machine-guns and small artillery pieces. Most airplane designers are agreed that the flying wing is the ultimate ideal. Several approaches to it are now engaging the serious attention of manufacturers.

The idea of collecting the air through which the airplane cleaves, to prevent eddies from forming over the wing, and of releasing it through the trailing edge so that skin friction is reduced, is considered in many quarters to possess potentialities for increasing speeds.

So soon as Mr. Mote has a scale model of his invention constructed, application will be made to the Air Ministry to grant facilities for a wind tunnel test, to gather mathematical data on which a formula for construction of a large aircraft could be built.

OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF FUTURE

Increase In Production And Employment In Britain

London, Oct. 8.

An optimistic view of the future was taken by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir John Simon, when speaking at the Lord Mayor's dinner to bankers and merchants at the Mansion House last night. He said that Britain's internal position was sound for while there had been some rise in prices this had been accompanied by a great increase in production and employment. In international trade there had been a definite upswing during the past two years from very low levels of the crisis period. But though the trend was more favourable, much remains to be achieved in the revival of international trade.

Widespread impediments to trade practised by so many countries in the form of exchange controls and otherwise constituted a most serious hindrance to export trade. There were limits to the extent of progress in any country or even any group of countries as long as they sought to be self-sufficient and to act in isolation. The best hope for the future lay in the linking up of the different countries of the world by the restoration of international trade which would stimulate consumption all round and reinforce expansion of the internal market with a parallel expansion of foreign markets. The recovery which had taken place in our own trading and financial position was a solid fact that would take a lot of shifting, and he saw no justification for supposing that the tide of our prosperity had reached its climax and was about to turn.

Paying tribute to the efforts which the French Government were making to overcome difficulties he welcomed speeches recently made by the French Prime Minister and Monsieur Bonnet in which they reaffirmed their intention to maintain the policy laid down in tripartite declaration. Especially did Britain welcome the assurance that France was determined to avoid any measure of exchange control.

CANTON-HANKOW RAILWAY LINE DAMAGED

Capetown Personnel Guaranteed Safety

Hankow, Oct. 8.

The two hundred and fifty members of the crew of H.M.S. Capetown who are on their way to Hong Kong spent last night at Lokcheng a hundred and forty miles north of Canton.

It is learned that the Canton-Hankow Railway line was damaged at five points between Lokcheng and Canton as the result of the Japanese bombing. The Railway authorities state that the repairs will take twenty-four hours and the train is expected in Canton on Saturday.

The Naval party protested to the Japanese authorities against the bombing of the railway and Vice-Admiral Hasegawa replied guaranteeing the safe passage of the personnel even if they have to be transferred to other trains. Besides the Naval party the train carried Mr. C. W. Garrett, the Hankow manager of the Hong Kong Bank, and his wife who are proceeding home on leave; Mr. H. Dewsbury, manager of the Hankow Dispensary and Mrs. Dewsbury; Mr. G. A. Hankey, of the Asiatic Petroleum Co., Mr. J. A. Gaunt, of the Chinese Maritime Customs, and six missionaries including the twenty-six-year-old Canadian, Dr. Grant and Mrs. Grant, one other woman and a boy of six.

MANY VILLAGES BOMBED
Canton, Oct. 8: For the third successive day, Japanese bombers continued their merciless attacks on nonfortified villages along the Canton-Hankow Railway to-day, wiping out rows of houses and causing death and injury to civilians estimated at over 100.

Twenty-seven light and heavy bombers participated in two separate raids, the first at 8.35 a.m., and the second at 12.41 p.m. During both times the Japanese planes failed to enter Canton as they were driven back by anti-aircraft guns in the north-eastern suburb of the city.

A number of bombs fell near Tienho Village and Shaho Market, while seven bombs fell in Sanyuanli village, demolishing over 20 houses. Scores of villagers, including 10 children, were killed and wounded. Doctors and nurses from the Fong Pien Hospital in Canton were rushed to the village to give medical aid to the wounded.

NO SERIOUS DAMAGE

During the second raid the Japanese planes concentrated their attack on the villages along the Canton-Hankow line between Canton and Kongsueh, but were unable to inflict any serious damage on the bridges and tunnels. A number of sections of the rails were blown up but repairs are being rapidly completed.

A number of anti-aircraft guns have been mounted at several places along the line and gave a surprise welcome to the Japanese planes when they flew up the line to-day.

According to reports received here to-night, at least 30 bombs were dropped in the villages, killing and injuring some 100 villagers and wiping out over 40 houses.

Not satisfied with their bombings, the Japanese fliers swooped low and strafed the fleeing villagers with machine-guns.

As the raiders fled back to their base off the Tongkuwan coast, two planes headed for Whampoa where four bombs were dropped on a small village. Ten persons are reported to have been killed.

During both attacks to-day Chinese pursuit planes from Canton gave chase and finally succeeded in driving away the raiders.

CIVILISED WORLD BEHIND CHINA

Positive Measures Must Be Taken

IF PEACE IS TO BE RESTORED

Nanking, Oct. 8.

Expressing appreciation and admiration of the declarations by President Roosevelt and the State Department concerning Japan's activities in China, Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Foreign Secretary, said that although Geneva's resolutions and decisions fell far short of the action which might have been taken under the League Covenant these steps clearly demonstrated that the entire civilised world was at least spiritually behind China in her present fight.

DR. WANG CHUNG-HUI

He declared that events in the Far East culminating in Japan's invasions in Manchuria in 1931 constituted an object lesson to the world that a mere reiteration of pious hopes and resolutions had no effect on the aggression and action of Japan.

If peace is to be restored in Asia the nations of the world must take positive measures to defend the law of international morality and the principles forming the basis of civilised society.

Japanese Accused Of Using Poison Gas

Shanghai, October 8.

Severe fighting continues in the Shanghai area but even bloodier encounters are foreshadowed as a result of General Matsui's announcement. The Japanese claim that they are advancing on several points but the Chinese dispute this and say that notwithstanding the increasing pressure the Japanese advance has been checked. ANGLO-FRENCH AGREEMENT

London, Oct. 7.

The recent parleys which took place between the French Ambassador, M. Jules Corbin and the British Government indicated that there exists complete agreement between France and Britain as to the further handling of the Spanish question. It is stated that France and England would consider a possible Italian suggestion that the question of volunteers be referred to the Non-Intervention Committee, or that a Four Power Conference be convened, as rejection of the joint Anglo-French Note. It is expected that the Italian reply will be communicated to London and Paris in course of to-morrow.

TOTAL DESTRUCTION THREATENED

Foreign Property In Pootung

Shanghai, October 8: Foreign property in Pootung which has hitherto only been slightly affected by the hostilities is now threatened with total destruction. A Japanese spokesman to-day said that the Japanese Army had up to the present taken great pains to safeguard foreign property in Pootung but their attitude would be revised if cross-river bombardment into the "civilian centre" of Hongkew was continued. He said that shells from Pootung rained on all parts of Hongkew last night and added that the Japanese forces in Chapel had repulsed a severe Chinese counter-attack. The lines there remained unchanged but advances were made on other sectors especially on the Lotien-Kiating highway. Meanwhile the fighting continues unabated despite a persistent downfall of rain which the Japanese planes are braving.

Tokyo, Oct. 8.

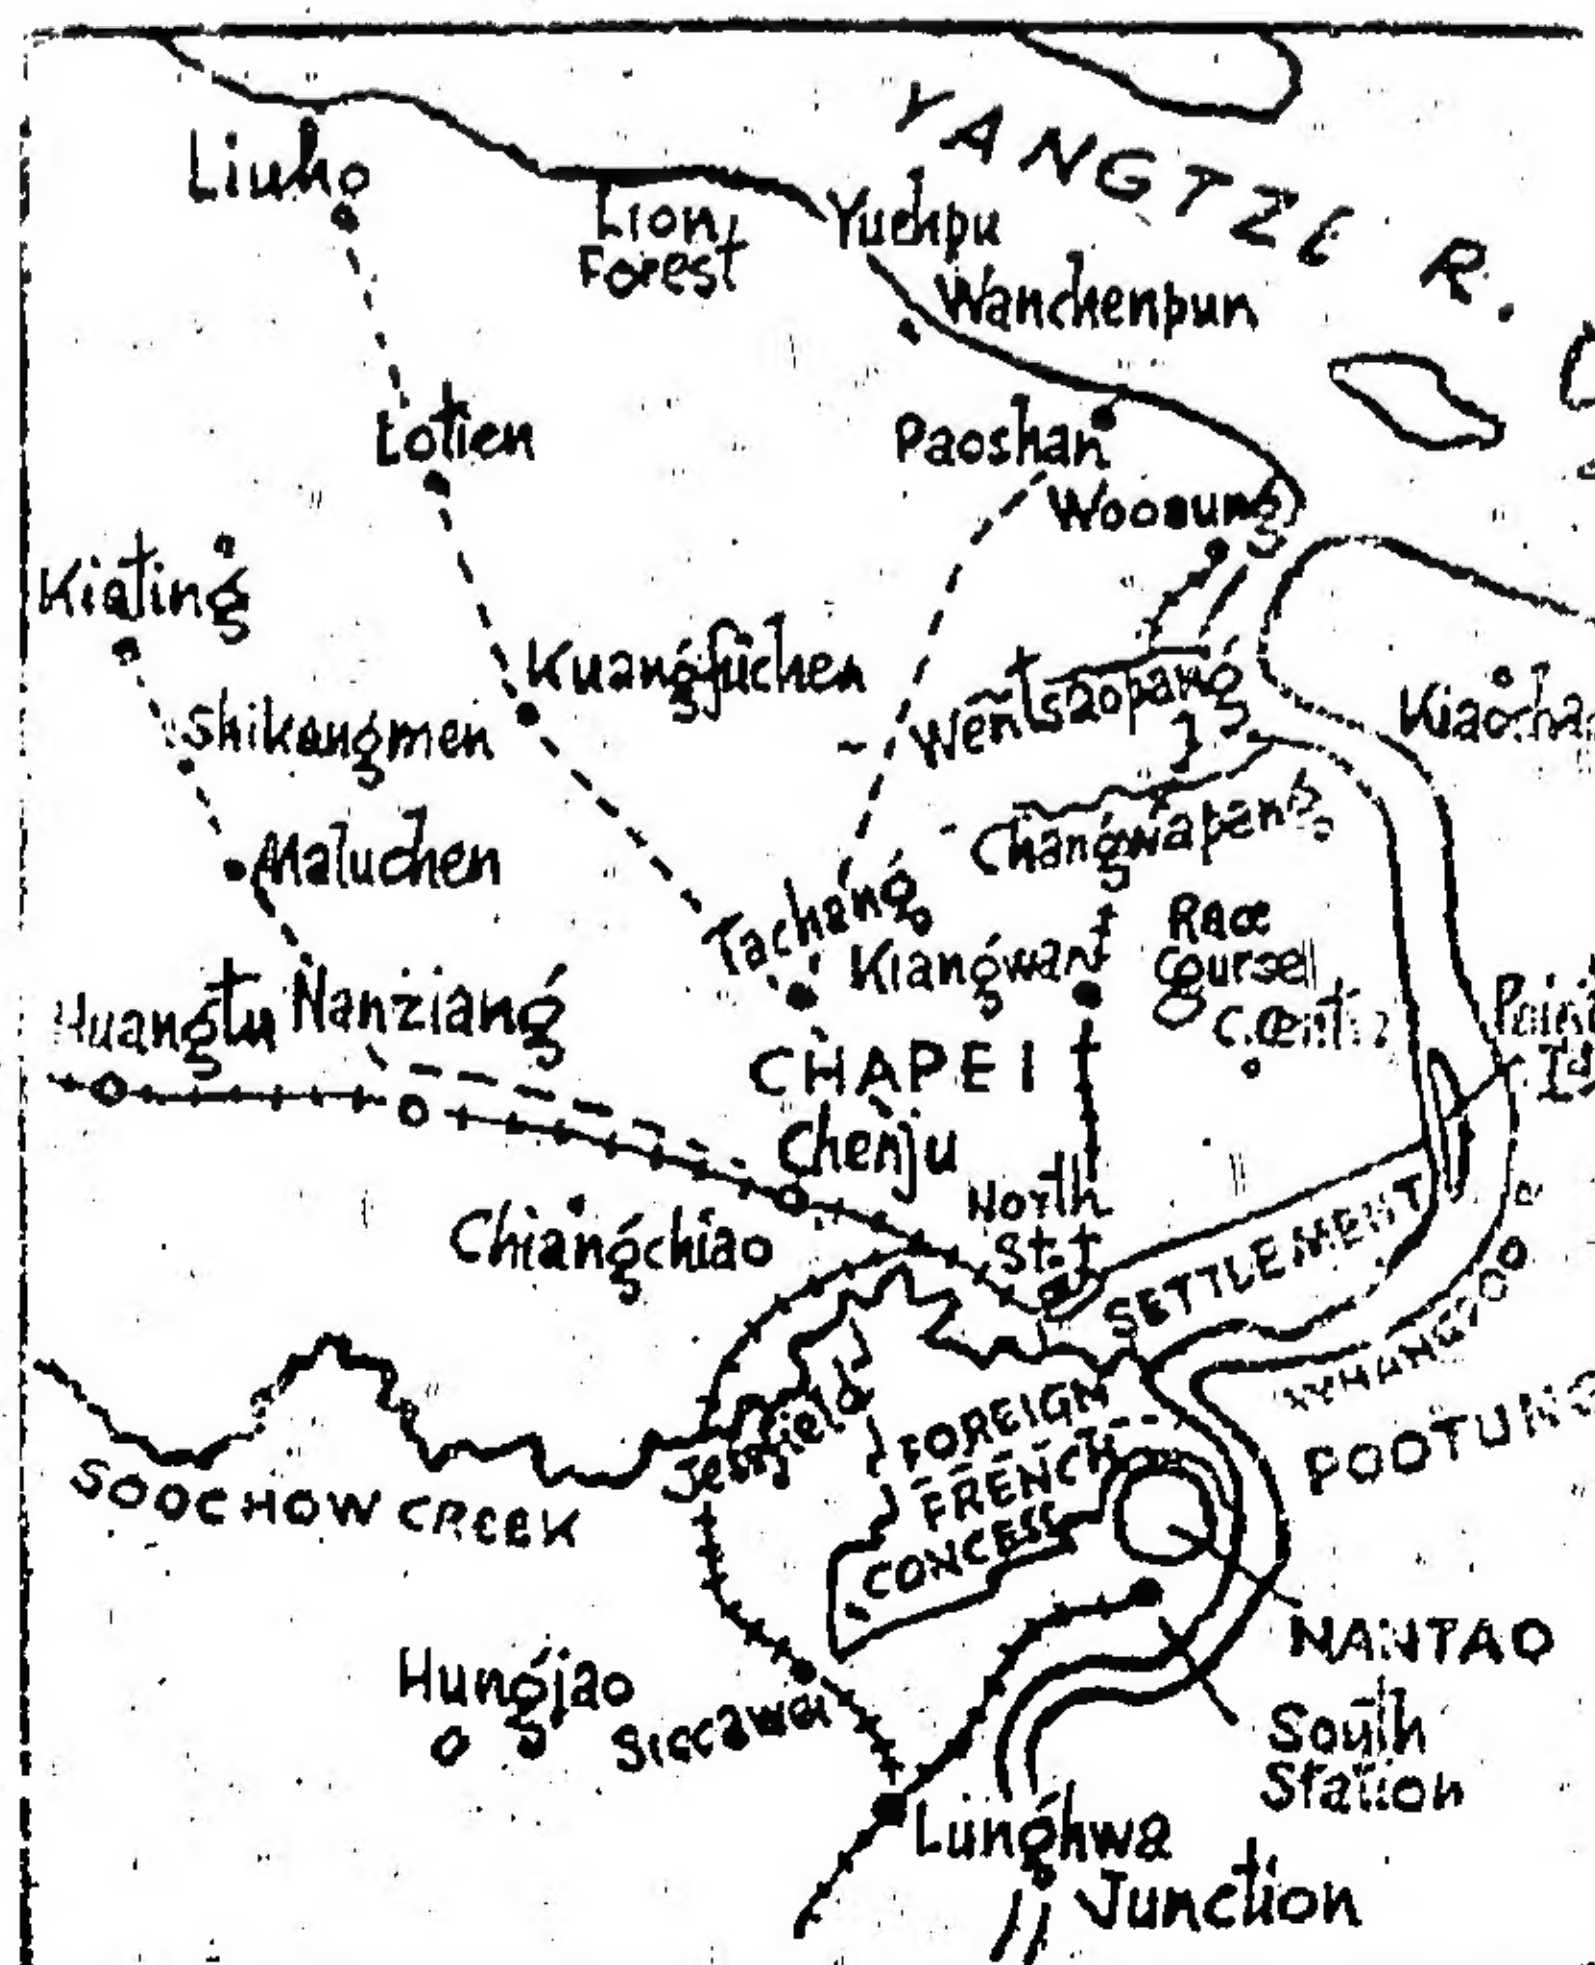

The Cabinet may consider denunciation of the Nine-Power Treaty when it meets to-day to discuss developments arising out of the declarations of the League and Washington.

It is even reported that denunciation of the Treaty is most imminent. The Stock Exchange was plunged into consternation by the United States Department denunciation of Japan and many issues slumped heavily.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL

Yankees Win The Second Time

New York, Oct. 7. Duplicating yesterday's rally in the sixth inning, the New York Yankees to-day won the second match in the World Baseball Series against the New York Giants by eight runs to one. They now need only two more victories to clinch the contest.

Ruffing, pitching for the winners, kept the Giants down to seven hits in the course of the nine innings; but the three pitchers tried by the Giants conceded 12 hits to the Yankees. Melton was named the losing pitcher.

The weather was warm and sunny, there being an attendance of 60,573 with total gate receipts $229,552. Mr. Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States, was again present at the game.

Ruffing pitched unchanged for the Yankees. He was only in trouble twice, in the first and ninth innings. In the last frame, he conceded a walk and two singles, thus loading the bases, but then Moore grounded to third base and the runner was but out at home. Ruffing struck out eight batters.

MELTON STARTS WELL

Melton commenced well and held the Yankees helpless for four innings, allowing them only four hits. In the fifth, however, the American League champions bombarded him with four straight hits to force two men home, thus taking a lead of 2-1.

Gumbert replaced Melton in the box and staved off the Yankee attack for the remainder of the session. The Yankees duplicated yesterday's sixth inning display of dynamite and forged further ahead with four runs. Gumbert then yielded to Coffman, who gave the Yankees slightly more resistance from the mound, allowing only two runs and two hits in the seventh. No more scoring took place for the remainder of the match.

The Yankees' runs were batted in by Selkirk and Ruffing, three each, and Dickey and Hoag one each, while Melvin Ott was responsible for the Giants' solitary tally.

The score-board at the end of the match read:

	R.	H.	E.
Yankees	8	12	0
Giants	1	7	0

FIRE IN BLEACHERS

A fire broke out in the bleachers shortly after the close of the game, threatening considerable damage to the stands, but it was soon extinguished.

The game to-morrow will be played at the Polo Grounds, the Giants' home field.

Pearson will be on the mound for the Yankees, and Schumacher will attempt to stem the tide for the Giants.

Hong Kong, 6th Oct., 1937.

Two thousand Japanese, assisted by over 20 heavy field pieces, attacked the Chinese from three directions, and after a severe bombardment the defences around Kuohsien were broken down.

The Chinese resisted bravely and all died at their posts.

Reinforcements are being rushed north to check the Japanese advance. — Central News.

TIENTSIN FLOOD MENACE

Tientsin, Oct. 8. Tientsin city and the concessions are menaced with inundation owing to a rise in the river, which is nearing Tientsin and imposing the severest strain on the Grand Canal flood protection dyke. Breaches in the Grand Canal and the Tzuohu have flooded an area between these two rivers from Tientsin southward to Tchow, where the waters are flowing towards Haino.

The situation is aggravated by a breach in the Grand Canal south of Tuluichen whence a large volume of water is flooding the countryside south of Tientsin, which, it is feared, will overflow the Tsinpu branch line, forming part of the flood protection dyke. It was in this manner that Tientsin was similarly flooded in 1917.

The water is lapping the banks of the Chinese city in the vicinity of the Governor's Yamen, where the Japanese military authorities are hastily transporting munitions and war stores in junks and barges to the Grand Canal.

The accumulation of Japanese military stores on the Russian Bund have been similarly removed by hosts of lorries.

Reuter.

CHINESE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE NORTH OF TECHOW

Nanking, Oct. 8: The Chinese forces on the Tientsin-Pukow line have launched a counter-offensive against the Japanese north of Techow, important railway town in Shantung, military despatches received here state. Fierce fighting is in progress.

General Han Fu-chu, Chairman of the Shantung Provincial Government, is personally directing operations at the front. — Central News.

JAPANESE WARSHIPS SHELL YANGTZE TOWN

Soochow, Oct. 8: A despatch received here from Changshu states that three Japanese warships shelled Hsupu, a town on the Yangtze River about 18 miles southwest of Soochow, last night. Three of the shells fell in San-chuehchen, demolishing a number of houses.

Forty marines from the warships attempted to land near Hsupu but were driven back by Chinese entrenched along the bank.

Yesterday morning two Japanese bombers dropped five bombs at Fuchan near Changshu, killing two farmers and injuring seven others. Several houses were destroyed. — Central News.

JAPANESE PLANE CRASHES IN FUKIEN

Foochow, Oct. 8: A lone Japanese bomber, which scouted over Chuanchow yesterday morning, owing to engine trouble crashed to the ground near the city. The occupants were killed. — Central News.

RAIN STOPS AIR ACTIVITIES

Shanghai, Oct. 7. Incessant rains compelled the Japanese and Chinese air forces in the Shanghai area to remain inactive on Thursday. Japanese artillery, however, subjected the Chinese positions in the Lotien-Liuhong section to an intensive bombardment.

At three points in the Lotien-Liuhong sector the Japanese renewed their attempts to break through the Chinese lines. It is pointed out that a Japanese success in this line would inevitably compel the Chinese to abandon their positions at Chapel and Kiangwan.

The Japanese forces on the Shanghai front received further reinforcements to-day. The newly landed troops are mostly units from North China and Formosa. The fact that a large number of hordes have been landed with the troops seems to indicate the Japanese intention to substitute cavalry attacks for the activities of the motorized units, the success of which did not come up to expectations. — Transocean News Service.

TWO JAPANESE BOMBERS SHOT DOWN

Nanking, Oct. 8: Chinese Headquarters claim that two Japanese planes were shot down during the fighting yesterday.

One heavy bomber was hit by anti-aircraft shell and crashed near Soochow. All the occupants were killed. The second machine was struck by a bullet fired from a Chinese rifle at Tzangliang. The plane crashed in flames, killing the Japanese pilot and machine-gunner. — Central News.

MESSAGE OF SYMPATHY

Shanghai, Oct. 8: The Shanghai American Women's Club and the American Women's Universities Association have sent a joint telegram to Madame Chiang Kai-shek at Nanking expressing their sympathy for China. The message declared that they are horrified at the ruthless bombing of women and children in China by Japanese planes.

The same organizations also sent telegrams to Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt and a number of influential American women's organizations in the United States urging the American Government to co-operate with other Powers to stop further Japanese aggression in China. — Central News.

JAPANESE BOMB RAILWAY IN HUNAN

Changsha, Oct. 8: The Japanese bombers are carrying their raiding activities into Hunan province. Five planes at 12.30 o'clock yesterday released five bombs near Chenchow, about 45 kilometres north of the Kwantung border. Two of the missiles fell near the tracks while the other three fell into the nearby ponds. No damage was done. The raiders left following the arrival of Chinese pursuit planes. — British Wireless.

NAVAL PARTY HELD UP

Canton, October 8. According to the latest Chinese reports, "Capetown II" with 250 officers and men of H.M.S. Capetown aboard, is at present held up in Yingtak which is midway between Canton and Shikwan on the Canton-Hankow Railway. It is understood that a nearby bridge is at present under repairs. — Reuter.

TWENTY BOMBS DROPPED

Canton, Oct. 8 (10.15 a.m.): The "all clear" signal has just been sounded. Telephone messages reaching Reuter from Tungshan and Sainuen report that a number of Japanese planes were flying at a great altitude and dropped between 15 and 20 bombs on an objective several miles to the north of Canton.

Foreign observers state that the anti-aircraft guns went into action, their explosions dotting the sky with smoke but they themselves were unable to see the planes.

A few minutes later two planes plowed their way, heading for the south, probably returning to the base. The actual number of planes which took part in the raid is not known. Reuter's correspondent only seeing two of the Japanese machines. — Reuter.

JAPANESE PLANES ACTIVE AGAIN IN CANTON

Canton, Oct. 8 (8.35 a.m.): The air raid alarm has just sounded. At 9.50 a.m. the sound of bombing was first heard to the north of Canton and a few minutes later two silver planes were sighted, flying south at a height of between ten to twelve thousand feet in a blue sky. They were flying in and out of the clouds and it is probable that more Japanese planes are in the air though only two have been sighted thus far. — Reuter.

JAPANESE PLANE DOWN OFF CHINA COAST

Canton, Oct. 8: A Japanese plane which took part in the raid over Canton yesterday and was hit by an anti-aircraft shell, is reported to have crashed into the sea off the Chungshan district coast, according to reliable information received here. The machine sank shortly after it hit the water. — Central News.

JAPANESE SEIZE ISLAND NEAR HONG KONG WATERS

Canton, Oct. 8: Navigation circles here confirm the seizure of Hoppo Island by the Japanese marines off the South China coast, which is situated about 30 kilometres southwest of Hong Kong and about 130 kilometres from Canton.

The Japanese have erected a landing field for planes from Formosa and fuel tanks have been installed near the new hangars. A number of tents have also been put up. — Central News.

been framed at the dictates of blood-red imperialists, and, I think I am correct in my estimation of the Indian people, when I say that if there is one thing more than another which gets their gall it is imperialism in any of its forms. Certainly Indian sympathy in this dispute is all for China and we who had always in the past looked upon the Japanese with friendship, respect and admiration, are now beginning to revise our opinions," he said.

ECONOMIC SIEGE

Asked whether, in the face of the already growing economic troubles, Japan would be able to carry on the war for any length of time in the event of sanctions being applied against her by the League or a general world-wide economic blockade, our informant said:

"I am not so certain that such a step would produce the desired effect, because it would act as a powerful moral force in the hands of the avaricious militarists by means of which they could appeal to the patriotism of every son and daughter of Japan, and when it came to that, as we all know, they are patriotic to the point of fanaticism.

POLICY IN CHINA

"What you must remember is this: as the result of a prolonged propagandist campaign in Press and Pulpit the Japanese nation has been made to believe, and believe implicitly that their China policy is absolutely essential for the very existence of Japan. If that is the way they feel about it, then the application of an economic blockade would at once give them the impression that the whole world was out to kill Japan, and you can depend upon it, that is exactly how it will be interpreted to the masses by the military clique. Thus, the country would unite as they never would have done otherwise, in order to defeat the siege. They also have Italy's example during the Abyssinian crisis to follow.

"For these reasons, I personally, do not think world action on the lines contemplated would be judicious. It would be better to chance the outbreak of internal dissension."

A European passenger said that from all he could gather a violent anti-British sentiment was slowly beginning to sweep the country.

"The truth is they have never forgiven us for not renewing the Anglo-Japanese alliance," he said.

FRUGALITY AND TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT

Hong Kong Students Relief Association

In view of the urgent need for funds by the International Young M.C.A. Emergency Relief Council for the relief of the war-wounded in China, the Hong Kong Students Relief Association held a Frugality and Temperance Movement during the last three days.

The movement was very successful and a total of $4,437.57 was raised.

The Association will hold a special meeting at the Y.M.C.A. Kowloon on Oct. 13 at 7 p.m. at which representatives from Kowloon Schools will be asked to attend to discuss the possibility of organising a branch in Kowloon.

MARS IN THE ORIENT

Deeply the routing of warfare grinds out its tales of terror. In Shanghai shells crash with monotonous regularity and non-combatants continue to be added to the grim toll extracted in the name of Japanese "destiny." The Chinese lines are holding tenaciously, as Japanese army, navy and air force beat an incessant tattoo of lead.

The Chinese may not be notable warriors after centuries of training in the art of passive resistance, but the Japanese are apparently doing something that even China's great unifier, Chiang Kai-shek, had not fully accomplished. They are annealing the Chinese nation into an unpredictable mass.

Should Japan's aggressiveness, already rolling up a sizable opposition, result in starting an avalanche of patriotism, China's 400,000,000 population and tremendous resources might become the formidable tact to deal with in the East. How frequently the weapon of the aggressor proves to be a boomerang. —"Christian Science Monitor."

A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Concert To Raise War Funds

The Hong Kong Chinese Women's Soldiers' Relief Association organised a Dinner Dance in the Grill Room of the Hong Kong Hotel last night for the purpose of augmenting the relief fund so urgently needed and avail themselves of the opportunity to appeal to the community for their generous support to this very deserving cause.

The function, as was generally expected, turned out to be a great success, the Grill Room of the Hong Kong Hotel being packed to capacity, with over 800 people present, amongst whom were many leading residents, besides many Government officials from Canton, including Mrs. Wu Tchen, wife of the Governor of Kwangtung.

The concert itself was a brilliant success despite the fact that the majority of the artistes had not appeared in public before.

Miss Colleen Ng Quin's interpretation of "Good Night My Love" was warmly applauded.

Raymond Lui and his Hawaiian Serenaders played a magnificent selection of well-known Hawaiian pieces that won the appreciation of the audience.

The following contributed to the success of last night's entertainment:—The Misses Bonnie Ching, Herlinda Chew, Colleen Ng Quin, Bessie Wong, Dorothy Wong, Constance Lum, Gloria Yee, Nora Kew, Grace Chew, Mrs. Sylvia Choy, Master Billy Tse, Messrs. Kwong San Sui, Li Chor Chi, Wellington Gnew and Raymond Lui and his Hawaiian Serenaders.

SIR S. HOARE NAMES LIFEBOATS

Thousands of visitors at Cromer saw Sir Samuel Hoare, the Home Secretary, who is a native of the town, perform the naming ceremony of the two local motor-lifeboats, H. S. Bailey and Harriot Dixon. The dedication service was conducted by the Bishop of Norwich.

Sir Samuel said that side by side with State-aided services it was good for the country to have a voluntary organisation like the Lifeboat Institution, which was so well managed by private citizens.
